We have been unwilling even in these days of the high cost of all materials used in brewing to sacrifice anything in the quality of the materials which we use for the purpose of saving in expense.

The constantly increasing Harvard Beer clientele and the pleasing words of commendation coming constantly to us demonstrate that our course in addition to being pleasing to us as a matter of principle is also a sound business policy.

If You Only Knew the Difference

Many people actually believe that getting a good picture is a matter of luck. To a great extent they are not to blame for thinking so as the belief is quite widespread.

It may be luck in some studios, but if it is luck then ours is the luckiest studio in Boston, because every picture we make is good in the best sense of the word.

If you only knew the difference between a Purdy picture and the picture of the same person taken at any other studio, this advertisement would be entirely unnecessary in your case. Don't trust to luck! Come to the studios where skill has supplanted guess-work.

"THE 13th CHAIR"

Invested with the prestige which it acquired during a solid year's run in New York, "The 13th Chair," William Harris, Jr.'s production of Bayard Veiller's melodrama of mystery, is now at the Hollis St. Theatre. Out of the scores of theatrical offerings made each season in New York a few—just a few—invariably stand out as unusual successes and one or two as veritable triumphs. During the past season "The 13th Chair," made a place for itself at the very head of the list. When other plays staged at about the same time had long since forsaken Broadway for a tour of other cities, this piece of Bayard Veiller continued to crowd the theatre at which it was the attraction. Changes of season had no effect upon its popularity—the house was crowded in mid-summer as well as during Christmas week—nor did other troublesome influences have any effect upon its staying qualities. Which meant and was accepted without question as an assurance of exceptional merit.

That its long run in New York was justified will be amply proven by its engagement here, for it is safe to say that no other theatrical announcement to be made this season—or that has been made for several seasons past—will awaken such wide interest as that of the approach of this very unusual success. Bayard Veiller also wrote "Within the Law" which until now has been regarded as the most emphatic stage triumph of this generation. Now in "The 13th Chair" Veiller has veritably outdone himself, for his new piece is an even greater popular success than the first.

The N. Y. cast is at the Hollis in "The 13th Chair." At the head of which is Margaret Wycherly and among its members who are almost as well known are Harrison Hunter, George Graham, Eva Condon, Eilene Van Biene, Gertrude Dalton, Sarah Whiteford, Bruce Elmore, Perce Benton, A. T. Hendon, Martha Mayo and Charles Laite.

The Symphonic Horn eliminates all phonograph stridency and preserves the beautiful tonal characteristics of all instruments and voices.

The New Automatic Stop. With two simple movements it "sets" a record to stop and also starts it playing.

The Revolutionary Graduola, which gives you the privilege of expression control—lets you play the phonograph, in fact. This is a feature which you can use or ignore on different records as you see fit.

THE War Revenue Act, approved October 3, 1917, is summarized in this booklet, and clear examples are given showing how to compute the taxes and make out returns in compliance with the law. A copy will be mailed on request.

Very few rulings have as yet been made in connection with this law, but our attorney will be glad to assist in interpreting the Act in its application to individuals and business houses.

Purifying, Healing, Cleansing and Refreshing are the properties of this delightful dental antiseptic. Sprinkled on a wet brush and used night and morning it keeps the mouth healthy and the gums firm and strong. If the gums are tender or receding, massage with the finger wet with the wash. Polish the teeth with Barker's Antiseptic Tooth Powder.

"I believe Barker's Antiseptic Dental Wash is the best liquid dentifrice I have ever seen. The daily use of it cannot fail to be beneficial to the whole mouth as well as the teeth."
